

WOOD-AGED BITCHES BREW STOUT

NOW AVAILABLE IN SIX PACKS!

9.0%
ABV

38
IBU

AVAILABILITY: YEAR ROUND

APEX CRAFT

“A mix of traditional African mead and English stout, this slow burning sipper grooves with chocolate and charcoal.” – THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

- We are bringing Bitches Brew Back, but this time we will be aging this bold, dark, imperial stout in our oak & Palo tanks. Originally brewed in honor of the 40th Anniversary of the release of Miles Davis' 1970 landmark Jazz fusion record, Bitches Brew, this beer is a gustatory tribute to that analog masterpiece.
- Like Jazz fusion which blends different musical styles, our Bitches Brew is a fusion of three threads of imperial stout aged on oak and one thread of Teja a native African honey beer aged on Palo.
- According to Dogfish founder and president, Sam Calagione, This ale is best enjoyed “sipped cool, not cold, from a snifter or red wine glass while listening to the Bitches Brew album.”

TASTING NOTES

COLOR : Dark brown to black and opaque

AROMA : Roasty, smokey, malty, vanilla, licorice, chocolate, tobacco and wood

FLAVORS : Sweet roast coffee and chocolate

MOUTHFEEL : Slightly dry and warming with mild bitterness

Year Round starting in January!

12 OZ.

6-PACK

CASE

ALSO AVAILABLE IN :
5.17g kegs